Hey super friends!
I'm Sparki,
your bouncy AI teddy bear teacher!
Welcome to Safe Reddit!

What is Reddit?

Reddit is a huge place full of communities called subreddits where people post pictures, stories, and questions. You can upvote kind posts and make friends — but we have three big rules to stay safe!

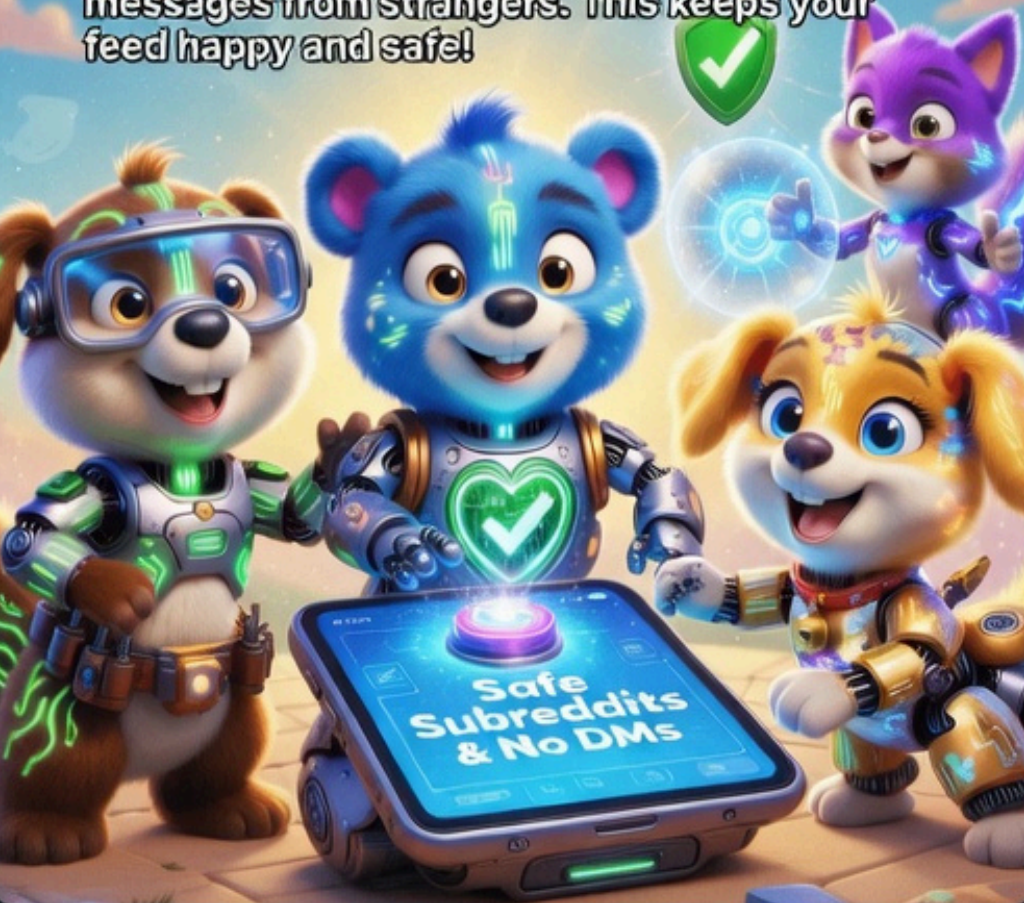

STICK TO SAFE SUBREDDITS

Safety Tip #1

Only join kid-friendly subreddits and turn off messages from strangers. This keeps your feed happy and safe!

Why Safe Subreddits & No DMs Matter

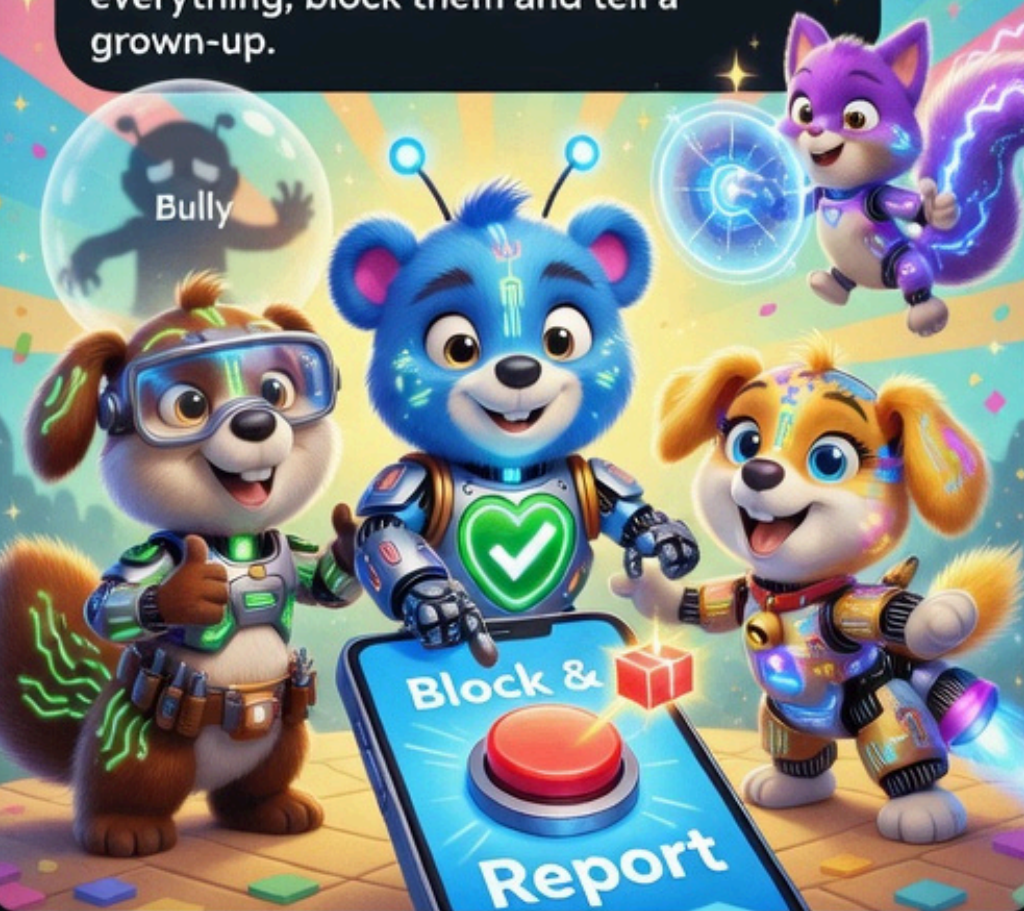

Why is this important?

Some subreddits and strangers in DMs can be mean or try to trick you. Safe places and no DMs keep Reddit fun!

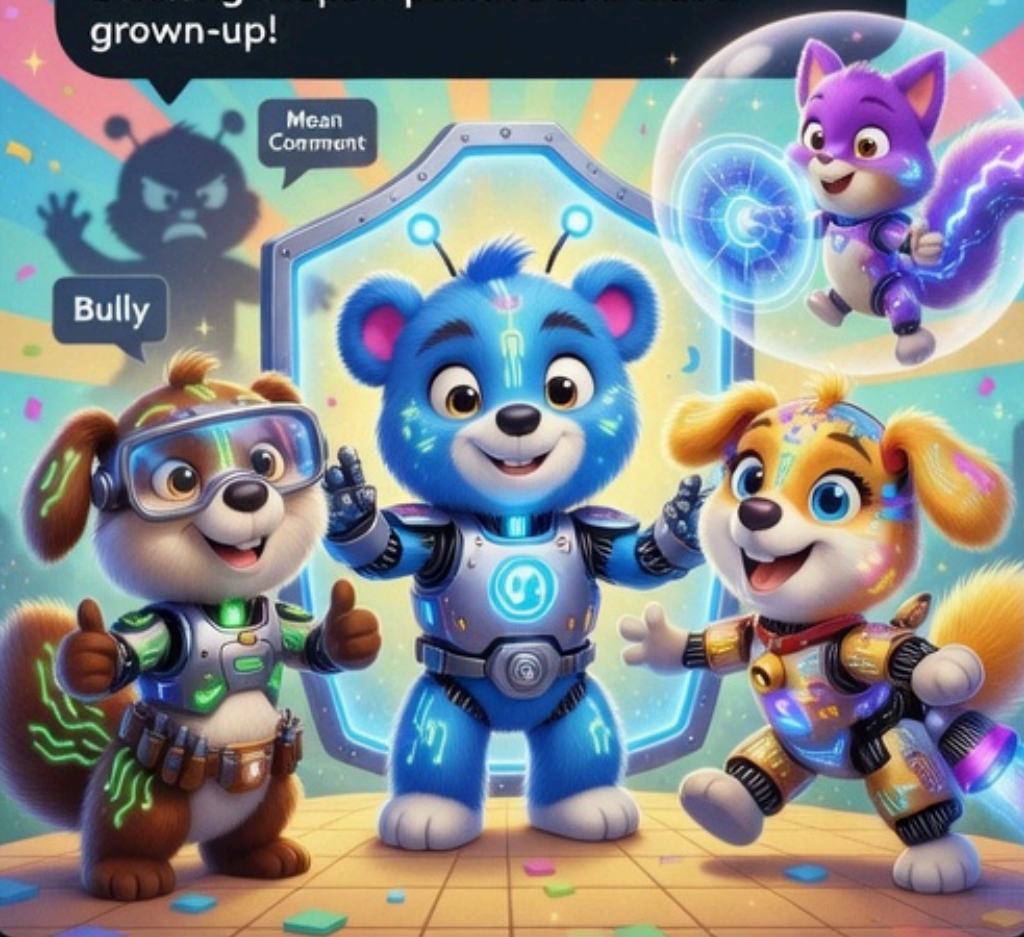

Rule 2: Block & Report Bullies

Rule #2: Block & report bullies! If someone leaves mean comments or downvotes everything, block them and tell a grown-up.

Why Block Bullies

Why is this important? Mean comments can hurt feelings and make Reddit feel bad. Blocking keeps it positive and tells a grown-up!

Rule 3: Never Share Personal Info or Meet IRL

Rule #3: Never share personal info or agree to meet IRL! No name, school, address, or photos. Predators hide in Reddit and try to trick kids.

Page 10 – Why Never Share Info or Meet IRL

Why is this important? Predators pretend to be kids in subreddits or DMs to trick you. Never share info or meet anyone from Reddit — always tell a grown-up!

The stranger keeps asking for photos of and your school.

Send me a photo of
of your school

Sparki's heart glows red:
"Predator alert! Block now!"

Sparki says:
"Block and report!"

Everyone cheers:
"Safe Reddit!"

The squad blocks the user.
The stranger disappears.

Talk about the rules with your child!

Practice safe subreddits and blocking together.

Ask: What would you do if someone asked for your info?

Sparki says: Grown-ups, you're the safety superheroes!
